THE VERY HUNGRY CATERPILLAR by Eric Carle

In the light of the moon, a little egg lay on a leaf.
One Sunday morning the warm sun came up
And out of the egg came a tiny and very hungry caterpillar.
He started to look for some food.
On Monday he ate through one apple, but he was still hungry.
On Tuesday he ate through two pears, but he was still hungry.
On Wednesday he ate through three plums, but he was still hungry.
On Thursday he ate through four strawberries, but he was still hungry.
On Friday he ate through five oranges, but he was still hungry.
On Saturday he ate through:
One piece of chocolate cake
One ice cream cone
One pickle
One slice of swiss cheese
One slice of salami
One lollipop
One piece of cherry pie
One sausage
One cupcake
And one slice of watermelon
That night he had a stomach ache.
The next day was Sunday again.
The caterpillar ate through a nice green leaf.
And after that day he felt a bit better.
Now he wasn't hungry any more
And he wasn't a little caterpillar anymore; he was a big - fat - caterpillar.
He built a small house, called cocoon, around himself.
He stayed inside for more than two weeks.
Then he nibbled a hole in the cocoon, then he pushed his way out and
He was a beautiful butterfly.
